There is another class of colored people who make a business of keeping the troubles, the wrongs, and the hardships of the Negro race before the public. Having learned that they are able to make a living out of their troubles, they have grown into the settled habit of advertising their wrongs-partly because they want sympathy and partly because it pays. Some of these people do not want the Negro to lose his grievances, because they do not want to lose their jobs.

The economic powers that control the global economy are manipulating the press and information systems on your planet to create fear. Fear is an ancient method of manipulating human consciousness. When a human is afraid, he or she operates from the reptilian circuitry of his/her brain. This results in less access to the higher brain centers, a decrease in reason, and an inability to see new options. The global economic powers have a vested interest in keeping you, and society in general, in a lower evolutionary state.

FLUSHING THE MEMORY HOLE

Government is obviously composed of corrupt and greedy people, and therefore they are a legitimate object of criticism and constant exposure. If your own political party is in power, then it is easier for you to say that all things are moving smoothly. Yet it has been demonstrated time and time again that the state has become infiltrated by individuals with secret societal philosophies that if implemented can dramatically change the way we live. Their party affiliation has no bearing on their hidden agendas. Those that hide in the shadows make policy in order to secure the state power hold and continuity of corrupt government.

Many times in modern culture the owl is used as a symbol to depict Moloch but in ancient times he was attributed to a bronze Minotaur statute with seven slots as seen in the artist depiction below. In those seven rooms they would place—flour, turtle doves, a ewe, a ram, calf, an ox, and a child. They would then light the idol illuminating the statute in the name of Moloch and all would burn in effigy.

[We] must be clear that important strands in the Western traditions, like the emphasis on humans' free will and the utter goodness of God, would lead to rejecting that the Devil can unilaterally cause or bring about evil. Free will is too important [to Christ's teaching and] rules out anything like a full-blown principle of evil. So, often we can think of the evildoing characteristic of the Devil really as an evil-influencing or evil-inspiring activity. Aquinas,¹ for instance, explicitly denies that Satan causes sin, on the basis of the will, but uses terms like a "disposer" or "persuader" to sin [which emphasizes the] traditional view of the Devil as a manipulative miscreant. Consider the story of Jesus being tempted by the Devil in the wilderness at Matthew 4:1–11, where the following is the Devil's third attempt:

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. "All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.' "

Excerpt copied and [condensed] from Philosophical Approaches to the Devil edited by Benjamin W McCraw and Robert Arp

From Lectures on the Philosophy of Law, THE JOURNAL OF JURISPRUDENCE 1872 VOL. XVI. P 68:

"This idea came into the world through Christianity, in which it is that the individual, as such, has an infinite worth, as being aim and object of the love of God, and destined, consequently, to have his absolute relation to God as spirit, to have this spirit dwelling in him. Christianity, it was, namely, that revealed man in himself to be destined to supreme freedom This idea, then, is the very actuality of man, and not that he has it, but that he is it. Christianity has made it the very actuality of its adherents, —the very actuality of its adherents, not to be a slave for example."

Pope Threatens Belief in Free Will

The Catholic faithful has been altered from "Do not submit to temptation" to "Do not let us enter into temptation." This alteration in effect removes our freedom to say NO, eliminates our moral responsibility as individuals, and thus, undermines the foundation of Western Jurisprudence. Dec. 8, 2017

ROSENBERGS DIE

Pair Executed for Atom Spying

END OF TRAIL—Rosenbergs to death in electric chair came swiftly for Atom Spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg after they had pleaded and attorneys who refused.

Supreme Court and Eisenhower Reject Couple's Last Pleas

ORRINGTON, N.Y., June 19 — Atom Spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg died in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair shortly before sundown today. The executions followed quickly after the Supreme Court set aside a stay of execution granted Wednesday by Justice William O. Douglas and President Eisenhower's refusal to grant them clemency.

SING SING PRISON, N.Y., June 19 (AP) — Atom Spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were ordered electrocuted late today for betraying their country's secrets to Russia and threatening the lives of millions by bringing the world closer to an atomic war.

The Justice Department set the time for the doomed couple's death in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair after a day of suspense in which the U.S. Supreme Court denied their final appeals and President Eisenhower again refused executive clemency.

Warden Wilfred Green announced that the husband and wife exchange team would be put to death in the gas-chamber prison's death chamber "before sundown," which comes at 8:48 p.m. (11:30 P.M.) today at Sing Sing, which he said the first execution would come at 8 p.m. EST, with the second a few minutes later.

Spent Time Together

The Jewish husband, who at sundown, said the place to execute the couple before that time, instead of at the traditional 11 p.m., were announced after the prison warden said he would ask the Rosenbergs if they wanted to request a delay until tomorrow night.

The Rosenbergs spent their last afternoon together just then as a shower of regular prison fare—hard-boiled

In early 2016, this report details, Donald Trump stunningly told a campaign rally in South Carolina that if he was elected “you will find out who really knocked the World Trade Center”—and that caused Secretary Rumsfeld to openly break with all former Bush regime and “Deep State” aligned establishment Republican Party officials and openly declare that he was “clearly” voting for Trump—and since Trump won the presidency, has led Rumsfeld to praise Trump’s “steel-clad leadership” and state that the US “was better off today than if we had Hillary”.

Secretary Rumsfeld’s joining forces with President Trump, this report explains, has profound consequences for the “Deep State” as this alliance has now provided the roadmap to deliver a “kill shot” to this shadow government by destroying its secret funding apparatus—and comes in the form of the at least 2,400 auditors Trump has just unleashed upon the Pentagon to conduct the first ever in history audit of this mammoth war making machine—with the Pentagon’s only purpose lately being its ability to orchestrate hostility toward Russia, China, Iran, and North Korea in order to protect its $1 trillion annual budget by convincing the American public that the US is threatened by enemies.

NAME

strzok - remove a string from memory if it is Republican, otherwise do nothing

SYNOPSIS

#include <string.h>

```
char *strzok(const char *s);

DESCRIPTION

The strzok() function detects whether or not the contents of a string are Democratic or Republican. If the string's contents are Democratic, no action is taken. If the string's contents are Republican, the string is deallocated and removed from the system memory.

RETURN VALUE

If the string remains allocated, the strzok() function returns a pointer to the string's location in memory. On successfully removing a Republican string, the strzok() function returns NULL.

ERRORS

strzok() may be interrupted by the Inspector General of the Department of Justice.

CONFORMING TO

strzok() conforms to SVr4, 4.3BSD, POSIX.1-2001, Fahrenheit-451, and 1984.

After spending a reasonable amount of time looking at the recent CNN Fake News story surrounding Donald Trump Jr.; and accepting the leak that spurred that fake news story stemmed from inside the House Intelligence Committee; and after applying a reasonable amount of common sense to how it occurred; CTH believes Adam Schiff was the most likely source of the leak to CNN's Congressional Correspondant, Manu Raju, that led to the fraudulent story. Today's discussion with Jake Tapper confirms that assertion:

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - U.S.

Representative Trent Franks said on Friday that he would resign from Congress effective immediately, instead of the Jan. 31 date he previously had set following the announcement of a probe into accusations of sexual harassment against him.

Things are going really well for our economy, a subject the Fake News spends as little time as possible discussing! Stock Market hit another RECORD HIGH, unemployment is now at a 17 year low and companies are coming back into the USA. Really good news, and much more to come!

No American should be separated from their loved ones because of preventable crime committed by those illegally in our country. Our cities should be Sanctuaries for Americans – not for criminal aliens!

Every Senator and Congressman will have to make a choice: do they want to protect American citizens or do they want to protect criminal aliens?

Just months before 9/11, the World Trade Center's lease was privatized and sold to Larry Silverstein.

Silverstein took out an insurance plan that 'fortuitously' covered terrorism.

After 9/11, Silverstein took the insurance company to court, claiming he should be paid double because there were 2 attacks.

Silverstein won, and was awarded $4,550,000,000.
